A neat sum was realized from the performance. The play will be repeated next Friday evening.

Dance at Hotel Curtis

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the high school year was the dance given at the Hotel Curtis Saturday evening. Dancing started promptly at 8:30 in the ball room of the hotel, which was beautifully decorated with ferns and iris. Forty couples attended the dance including Miss Martha Parsons of Millersburg.

Miss Dorothy Dixon of New York City and Mr. Harry Bailey of Marietta College, Marietta.

Chaperones for the dance were Mr. John Van DeVelde, Miss Hazel Worley, Mr. F. J. Boyle and Miss Leonora Rayot. A number of the parents visited the dance throughout the evening.

One of the largest factors in making the dance a success was the excellent music furnished the dancers by the Elk's orchestra of this city.
